

WHAT WE HAVE DONE AND WHAT THE REBELS HAVE DONE.

The following exhibit of the successes gained in the present war by our armies and fleets over the rebels shows that there is no cause for the gloom and dissatisfaction which secessionists are striving to spread over the land:

UNION VICTORIES.

Drainesville,	Newbern,
Mill Spring,	Roanoke Island,
Fort Henry,*	Norfolk,
Fort Donelson*	Merrimac,
Bowling Green,*	Evacuation of Ma-
Columbus,*	nassas,
Nashville,	Yorktown,
Island No. 10,	Williamsburg,
Memphis,	Hanover Court-
Fort Wright,	House,
Corinth,	Fair Oaks,
Pensacola,	Malvern Hill,
Two battles in the	New Orleans,
Ozark Mountain,	Murfreesboro',
Arkansas,	South Mountain,
Fort Pulaski,	Antietam,
Fort Macon,	Arkansas Post,
Baton Rouge,	Foster's doings in N.
Port Royal,	Carolina.

*Styled "Gibraltars" by the rebels.

The rebels have been driven from Maryland, Kentucky, Western Virginia, Missouri, and nearly all Tennessee.

The blockade by land and sea has been so perfect that molasses is $7 a gallon, sugar $1 a pound, and boots $25 a pair in Richmond.

We have captured or destroyed as many as nine large iron-clads.

REBEL VICTORIES.

Two battles at Bull Run.

Big Bethel.

Ball's Bluff.

Bolivar.

James Island.

Vicksburg.

Cedar Mountain.

Front Royal.

Harper's Ferry.

McClellan driven from Richmond.

Fredericksburg.

Clarksville retaken, but lost again.

Recapture of Galveston, with the Harriet Lane.

Destruction of the Congress and Cumberland, and capture here and there of gun-boats.

Fort Craig, New Mexico.

Incursions into Pennsylvania, Maryland and Kentucky, from which they were driven back.

Depredations on the high seas.