

EDITORIAL CALENDAR

COMING SOON IN THE SATURDAY EVENING POST:

SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER 2010 THEME:

KEEPING AMERICA HEALTHY

- The POST takes an in-depth look at American health care
- Current changes in health insurance
- The latest in medical innovations with analysis from noted researchers

MARCH/APRIL 2011 THEME:

AMERICAN HUMOR

- From giggle to guffaw, versions of ever-popular POST offerings (cartoons, Post Scripts) and maybe even an April Fools' joke or two

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER 2010 THEME:

JOIN US FOR THE HOLIDAYS

- Holiday celebrations across generations and decades
- Family traditions and recipes for Thanksgiving, Christmas, and more
- New ideas for the most joyous of all seasons

MAY/JUNE 2011 THEME:

HONORING OUR MILITARY

- From the Revolutionary War through the World Wars to conflicts today, the POST honors service personnel and their families

JANUARY/FEBRUARY 2011 THEME:

FICTION IN AMERICA

- Classic POST fiction from great American writers
- New fiction, including the winner of the Annual Lorian Hemingway Short Story Competition

JULY/AUGUST 2011 THEME:

TRAVELING AMERICA

- The POST visits favorite vacation destinations
- "Secret" spots of beauty and wonder across the country

IN EVERY ISSUE: Health, Finance, Travel, Food, Fiction, Humor, Profiles, Games, Classic POST Art, Charles Osgood: American Scene

ALL TOPICS SUBJECT TO CHANGE.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST